"Cattle Working For You!"

KRAVIG RED ANGUS CATTLE WORKING FOR YOU!

Introducing our newest adventure,
Jasper Wells Kravig.
Born September 24th, 2021.

Friends and Cattle Producers,

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you and thank you for your interest in our program. This year we are very excited to have our inaugural Fall Age Advantaged Bull and Female Sale. We are proud to offer a powerful set of 18-20 month old bulls along with a very fancy, functional set of females, both bred and open.

We have been wanting to make the transition to an age advantaged production sale for several reasons, one of those being the fact that we want to ensure we are offering the highest quality bulls we can in terms of feet, condition, and longevity. By developing these older bulls out on grass for a year we have the chance to cull deeper and select only the best in terms of feet, efficiency and docility. The second reason we wanted to transition to a fall production sale is to be able to publicly offer some of our higher end bred females as well as several of the best replacement heifers we have to offer.

My father instilled in me at a young age the importance of selecting cattle based on efficiency and functionality as well as selecting the right kind of cattle for your environment. With that in mind, our philosophy is and always has been to put extra emphasis on cattle that convert well and cattle that are adaptable, thus we derived our motto of "Cattle Working For You!" To put it simply our motto can be interpreted as this: Our cattle have been bred and developed to survive on their own with minimal supplements through the extreme and diverse weather that our climate offers. By making these cattle go out on the short grass prairies and forage for the large majority of their diet we have been able to eliminate certain genetics that need TLC to remain in production. By raising cattle who the ability to survive in program it has proven true that when they leave our ranch they can go nearly anywhere and remain in production for years to come. With the ever-increasing costs of production we believe now more than ever in the importance of selecting efficient cattle that convert well and produce offspring that will perform at the highest levels. Traits such as easy fleshing, calving ease, udder quality, disposition, and structure from the ground up is a must the cattlemen to remain profitable. Cattle that have the ability to stay on the land, are highly fertile, convert feed well, and have the "front pasture" appeal have become the standard for us here at Kravig Red Angus.

As you make your plans for the coming year's breeding decisions we hope that you will come take a look at our offering, and if you are in the neighborhood come take a look at the cowherd that is behind them. These genetics are tried and true and we believe that the cattle will speak for themselves.

Thanks again for your interest and support of our program. We look forward to seeing and visiting with you all at the sale on December 2nd.

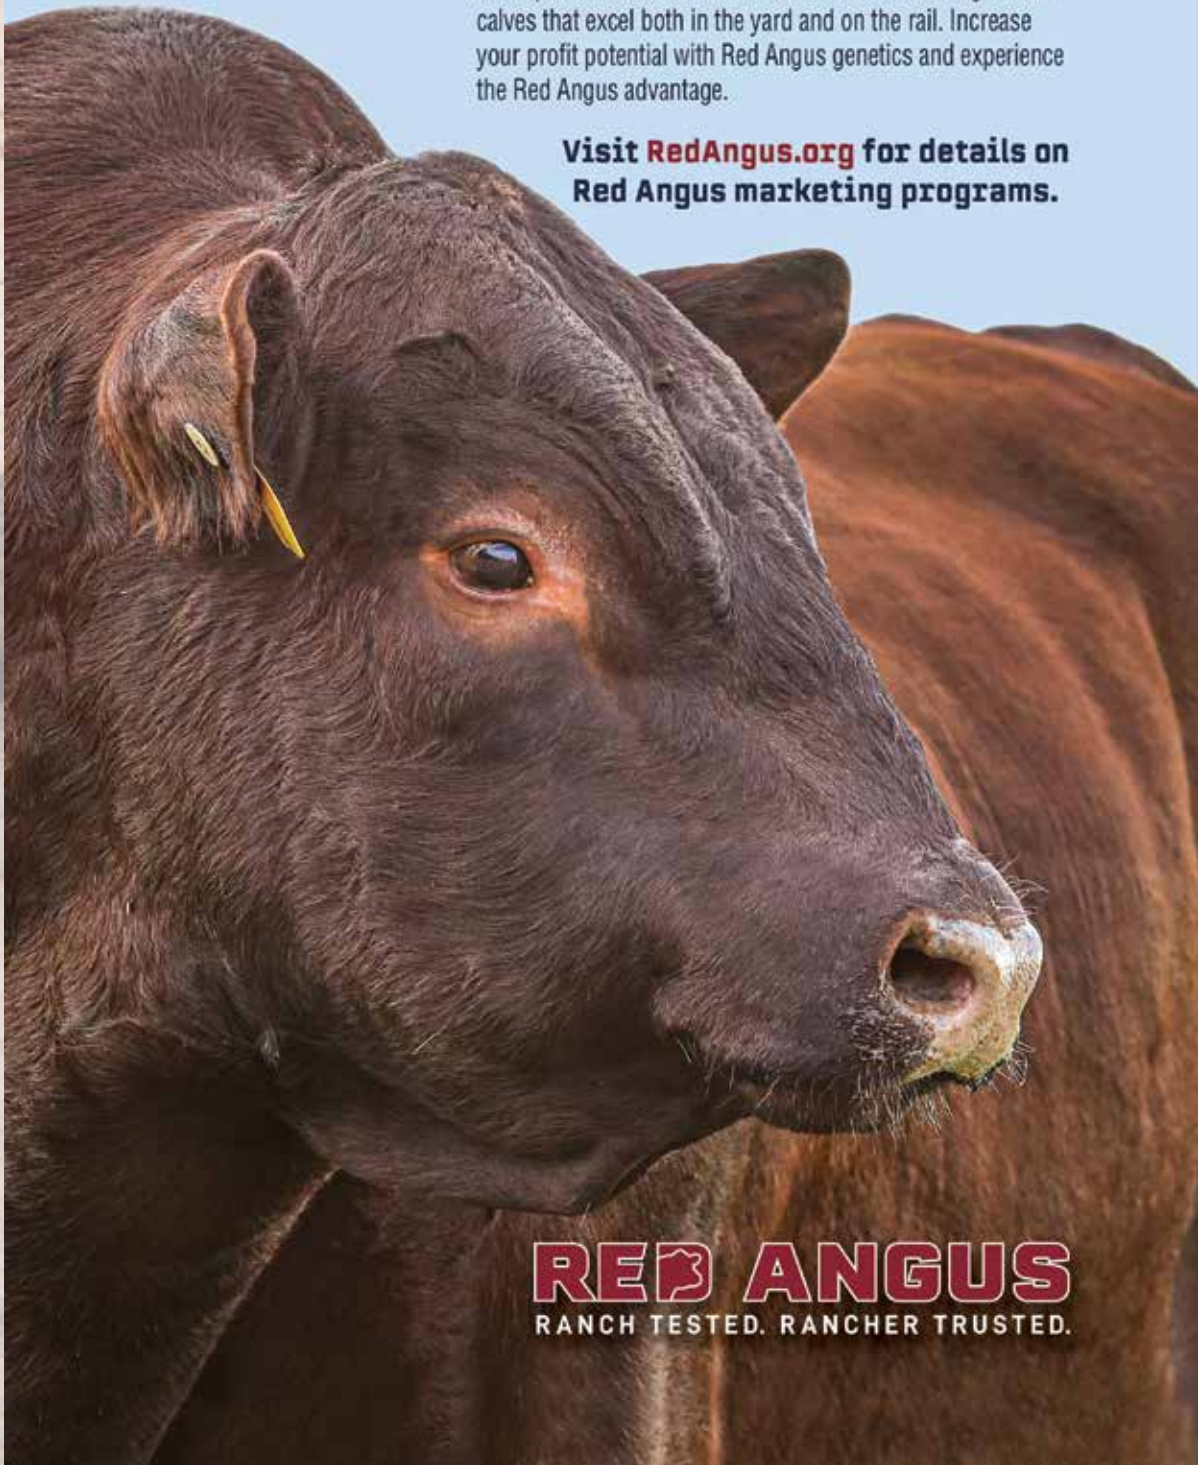

-Aaron Kravig
